This Privacy Policy establishes our rights and obligations with respect to your personal information, and lets you know your associated rights.

1. Your Consent to this Privacy Policy.

Our Privacy Policy applies to individuals who use our Website, or participate in our Services (collectively, "you"). You indicate your consent to this Privacy Policy in different ways, depending on your relationship with us, as set forth below. Please read this Privacy Policy carefully; once you consent to this Privacy Policy and its terms, it creates legal obligations on you and on us.

1.1 Consent by Website Users.

. By accessing our Website, you are acknowledging that you have read and understood this Privacy Policy and agree to be legally bound by it.

1.2 Consent by Service Recipients.

When you provide information in connection with participating in one of our programs, you similarly consent to this Privacy Policy. We will take reasonable steps to notify you of this Privacy Policy at the point where we collect the information.

1.3 Our "Authorization and Consent" Form.

To promote our Services and our mission, we periodically ask recipients of our Services (and others interested in our Services) if we may use photos, videos, stories, and other content that reflect their participation in our programs. At some point, we may ask for your permission in this regard. We will ask your permission via a written "Authorization and Consent" form (each an "Authorization and Consent"), and the Authorization and Consent will specify the specific scope and nature of your consent. You are free to give, or withhold your consent, and we will not use these photos, videos, stories, or other content in any way that identifies you (or otherwise contains your Personal Information), unless you give your express consent by signing the Authorization and Consent.

1.4 Right to Withdraw Consent.

You have the right to withdraw your consent under this Privacy Policy at any time, in accordance with Section 10 (Your Choices Regarding Your Personal Information; Opting Out). If you have agreed to, and signed, an Authorization and Consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent in the manner specified in that Authorization and Consent.

2. The Information We Collect.

The information that we collect about you falls into certain categories as further described in this Section 2 (The Information We Collect). This information consists of the following:

2.1 Personal Information.

- Your other contact information, including a mailing address and phone number;

- Payment information, including credit or debit card, bank account, or other financial account information; and
- Geolocation information.

2.2 Online Activity Information.

We also collect technical and device-related information through our Website (collectively, "Online Activity Information"). Online Activity Information is typically collected automatically by technical means and, subject to Section 2.4 (Treatment of Combined Information), for purposes of our Platform, may consist of the following:

- Device identifiers, such as cookies;
- Device information, such as hardware and software settings;
- IP addresses and log information, such as your device's name, the type and version of your web browser, and referrer addresses that can function to identify a user device; and

To the extent that statutes, regulations, and any other laws that apply to the Services (collectively, "Applicable Law") establish that Online Activity Information constitutes Personal Information, and such Applicable Law applies to information we collect from you, then we will treat the relevant Online Activity Information as Personal Information. In addition, sometimes Online Activity Information can be associated with your Personal Information, in which case we will treat it as Personal Information (as described in Section 2.4 (Treatment of Combined Information)). Otherwise we consider, and treat, Online Activity Information as Anonymous Information.

2.3 Anonymous Information.

Our Website also collects and uses, and our Services similarly use, information that does not identify you or your devices, including Personal Information that has been made anonymous by: (i) removing identifying fields and aggregating the information with other information so that individual subjects of the information cannot be re-identified, or (ii) anonymizing the information with techniques that remove or modify the identifying data so as to prevent re-identification of the anonymized information (collectively, "Anonymous Information"). Information that meets these criteria might include, for example, demographic information, statistical information (e.g., page views and hit counts), and general tracking information. We use Anonymous Information for our business operations. Because Anonymous Information does not include Personal Information, Anonymous Information is outside the scope of this Privacy Policy.

2.4 Treatment of Combined Information.

To enable us to better understand the characteristics of our users and/or to provide Services tailored to your needs, we may link your Personal Information with Online Activity Information associated with you or other Anonymous Information. If we combine Online Activity Information or Anonymous Information with Personal Information, then we will treat the resulting combination as Personal Information.
